ELEVEN WHITES ARE JAILED

GRAND JURY TAKES UP INVESTIGATION IN TEXAS RACE RIOT.

WARRANTS FOR THREE MORE

Number of Dead Eight—Other Bodies May Be Found Soon.

Palestine, Tex., Aug. 1.—The grand jury was reconvened this afternoon by District Judge Gardner, who delivered to them his charge in connection with the recent negro massacre in this county, after which they began their investigation. In his charge Judge Gardner stated that the recent affair had not only humiliated and disgraced this county, but had also disgraced the state, and he emphasizes the necessity for a most thorough investigation. He spoke in a voice full of emotion and the charge was carefully listened to, one of the jurors explaining that he was hard of hearing, taking his seat close to the judge's bench.

There are now a total of eleven prisoners, all white, in the county jail, charged with being principals or accessories in the killings. In today's News it was stated that four were brought to Palestine last night and that sheriff Lacey of Houston county was en route with two more. He arrived here this afternoon with these additional two. Another two were today arrested. They do not live in this or adjoining counties, but with their families were passing through in wagons. The two men are charged with being accessories in the murder of the negro who was found dead in Houston county and also of possibly being implicated in some of the murders in this county.

Warrants for Others.
Sheriff Lacey left tonight for Houston county with warrants for three more white men and when arrested these will make a total of eleven.

A week will probably be required by the grand jury to complete its investigation. Judge Gardner says this will largely depend upon whether eyewitnesses can be secured. If a sufficient number of these testify the time will be shortened, compared with the time that will be required if circumstantial evidence is depended upon.

WILL RESIGN SUPREME BENCH

JUSTICE MOODY HAS SO INFORMED THE PRESIDENT.

HUGHES HAS A CLEAR FIELD

Moody Retires Soon to Regain His Now Shattered Health.

Magnolia, Mass., Aug. 1.—Associate Justice William H. Moody of the United States supreme court has definitely stated that he will announce his retirement from the bench prior to the expiration of the enabling act passed in his behalf by the last congress. This act expires the middle of November.

In order that the president might be relieved of any embarrassment due to conflicting reports of Justice Moody's intentions, it is said that the jurist some time ago informed Mr. Taft of his purpose to quit the bench. The president has twice been at Magnolia to see Justice Moody since he came to Beverly, and on both occasions urged him to take all the time he desired in making up his mind. Justice Moody replied that his decision was irrevocable.

Relies on Complete Rest.

Justice Moody's health is improving, but he feels he will not be strong enough to assume the arduous duties of the coming term, which is to be taken up with the most serious questions that probably ever have been submitted to the tribunal. He will retire in the hope that a complete rest for a while, devoid of all worries as to his future status, may restore him to full strength. President Taft cordially expresses this hope.

The president now faces the responsibility of appointing two associate justices of the supreme court and designating a chief justice.

Hughes for Chief Justice.

Advices from Beverly are to the effect that the president has not changed his attitude with respect to the chief justiceship. Gov. Hughes still appears to have the field practically to himself.

Mr. Taft undoubtedly will take the full time between now and the meeting of congress in December in making his selections.

Whenever the subject of supreme court appointments is broached to the president a St. Louis speech last spring that he regards the designation of supreme court justices as the most solemn of his duties. (Mr. Taft already has given considerable thought to the two new vacancies. He has a group of men in mind, and after weighing all the circumstances will finally pick out the two whom he considers best suited from every point of view. In the meantime, however, he is not adverse to hearing the views of the leading bar associations and lawyers throughout the country, as he believes the subject cannot be too fully considered and threshed over.

DENVER WOMAN BECOMES DESPERATE

Became Crazy From Reading Account of a Murder Which Happened There.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 1.—Insane, it is believed, as a result of brooding over an account of a murder and suicide which took place in Denver eight days ago, Mrs. Mabel Eveland this morning shot and killed her husband, Joseph A. Eveland, as he lay asleep in bed and then killed herself.

Still Winning.

Messrs. Epperson and Curry yesterday in a match game of tennis with Messrs. Warren and Davidson played and won three straight sets. It is reported.

ELECTION QUIET AND ORDERLY

STRONG VOTE POLLED—CANDIDATES AND FRIENDS ACTIVE. AMENDMENT WILL CARRY.

The suspense will soon be relieved, the successful candidates and their friends will have reasons to rejoice, while those who meet defeat can say at least, "I have fought a good fight. I have kept the faith."

At this early hour a prognostication on the nomination of any particular candidate wouldn't be either expedient or politic. However, so far as can be ascertained a heavy vote has been polled both in the city and throughout the county; and while the candidates and their respective constituents have pulled every string hard and fast and interest has reached a height seldom manifested the voting has been done quietly and orderly. Apparently, to say the least, the man with the ballot has become aware that voting is a serious duty, and resolved to perform that duty to the best of his ability.

WESTERN OKLAHOMA RECEIVES GOOD RAIN

Three Counties in Principal Corn Belt Are Greatly Benefited by Moisture.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Aug. 1.—Three counties in the western part of the state's principal corn belt, Custer, Blaine and Dewey, received good rains today and reports indicate that the corn crop has been greatly benefited, the crop not having reached a stage that rain would not save it.

Broom corn is benefited also, and cotton is given an impetus that nearly guarantees a good crop.

Rains are reported also from Wagoner and Caddo counties. The latter is in the corn belt, the former on the eastern side of the state. Cooler weather prevailed today over Central Oklahoma.

Struck a Rich Mine.

S. W. Bends, of Coal City, Ala., says he struck a perfect mine of health in Dr. King's New Life Pills for they cured him of Liver and Kidney Trouble after 12 years of suffering. They are the best pills on earth for Constipation, Malaria, Headache, Dyspepsia, Debility. 25c at G. M. Ramsey's.

Mortuary.

Little Josephine Balwin, the six months old infant of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Balwin of East Tenth street, died this morning of brain fever. The remains were laid to rest in the Rosedale cemetery at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

DEPUTY KITCHENS SUCCESSFUL CHASE

PROBABLY THE LAST ARREST MADE IN BROWN LIVERY AFFAIR.

TWO WEEKS HOT TRAILING

Captures Will Brown and Elmer Story at Lindsey Yesterday and Positively Identifies His Man.

Something like a half dozen or more arrests have been made of suspects in connection with the theft of a buggy and team from the Brown Livery stable on the seventh day of last month. But Deputy Sheriff John Kitchen of that place brought in today what he thinks are the real culprits, and gives as his opinion that the last arrests in this interesting case have been made.

The parties delivered to Ada jail this afternoon are a man by name of Elmer Story and a woman, Willie Brown.

In an interview with a reporter the deputy said in substance: "I have had a hard chase and have been hot on the trail for two weeks, and am completely worn out.

"The buggy and team was stolen from the Brown Livery stable on the seventh day of last month. I helped hitch up the team and know I have the right parties. When I captured them they were going under the name of Nixon and claimed to be man and wife."

In speaking of his chase he gave this in effect: "Shortly after it was thought that the property was stolen I succeeded in locating the team at Iona, and recovered it there yesterday was a week ago. Having heard of these people's being at Chickasha I left Stonewall immediately for that place, but didn't find them. From there I trailed them to Laverly, from Laverly to Lawton, then to Cash, and from there to the Wichita Mountains, and from there struck the trail back to Lindsay where the capture was made. I caught story in Lindsey yesterday morning and Willie Brown six miles south of that place, placed them in jail at Lindsey till five in the afternoon, last night in Pauls Valley Jail and now here. I have gone some and am tired.

It is said Story was a Confederate and a brother-in-law of the notorious Will Hendrick.

OFFICIAL REPORT

ON CHEYENNES

That Indians are Wanderers and Are Not Dying Off Rapidly Is Shown.

Clinton, Ok., Aug. 1.—The report of the Indian Agent of the Seger Agency, which includes Custer and Washita counties, has just been finished for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910. It shows the total number of Cheyenne and Arapaho Indians living in this agency to be 576. Of this number 269 are males and 307 females. The Cheyennes great outnumber the Arapaehoes, the statistics showing that there are 127 Cheyenne males over 18 years of age and 162 females over 14 years of age, while of the same age there are only thirty-six male and thirty-nine female Arapaehoes.

That the Indians have a great tendency to wander is shown by the following figures: 144 Cheyennes and 56 Arapaehoes live on their allotments 248 Cheyennes and 53 Arapaehoes live on other allotments, while 42 Cheyennes and 36 Arapaehoes are classed as wandering about.

That the Indians are dying off very fast, as is currently believed, is not borne out by the report of the births and deaths which show nineteen births and eighteen deaths during the year.

GORE IS NOT FOR SALE

DID NOT BUY OFFICE AND WILL NOT SELL SENATORSHIP TO ANY MAN OR SET OF MEN.

Oklahoma City, Aug. 1.—In an interview here yesterday Senator Gore said relative to the McMurray affair at Washington, in substance:

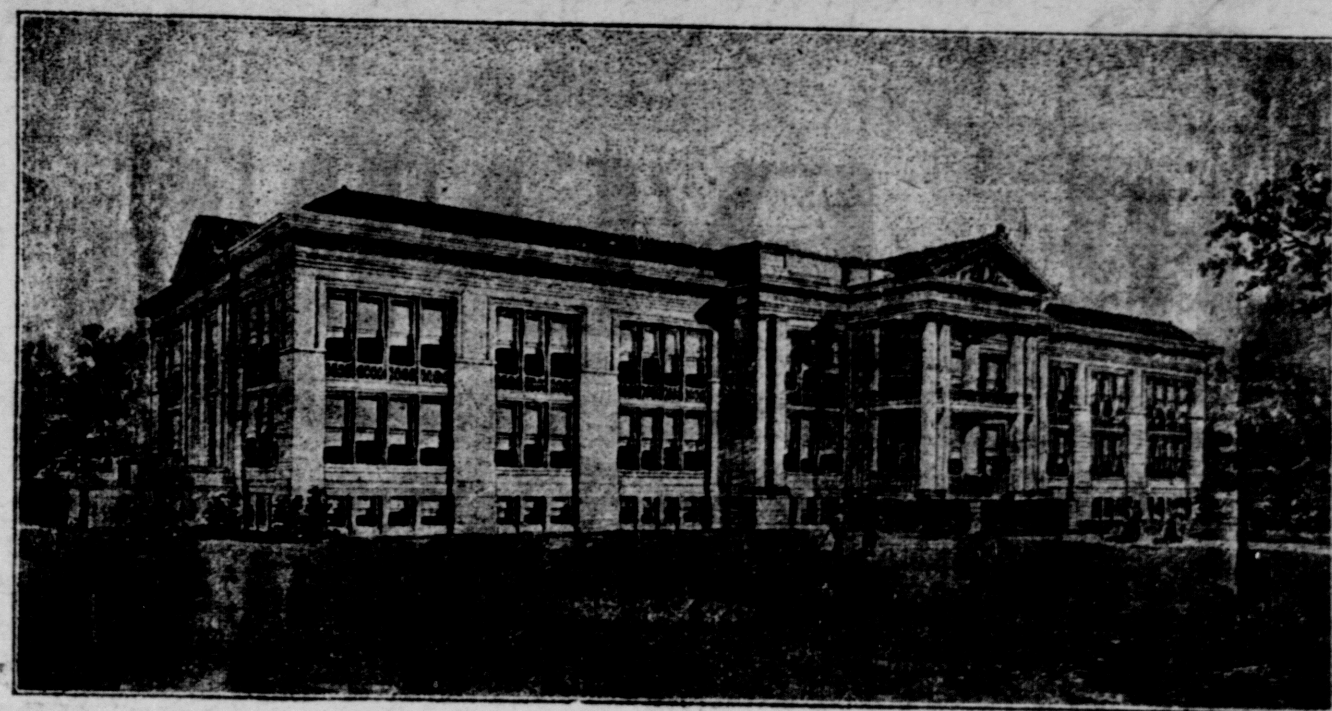

"The people did not sell the senatorship to me and I shall not sell the senatorship to any man or set of men."

"An interview attributed to Bird McGuire appears in a Chicago paper in which he is alleged to have said in effect that my course was due to the fact that I was engaged in a race for re-election and that McMurray was opposing me. No such object influenced me. My re-election is four years hence and I imagine I could have placated the holder of those contracts if I had tried. But those parties know more about each other's plans than I. If my acquiescence would have been worth thousands to a friendly senator from Oklahoma it would perhaps be worth tens of thousands to his successor. I shall probably incur opposition of these parties both for renomination and re-election, but I shall continue to do my duty without reckoning as to the consequence upon my personal or political fortunes."

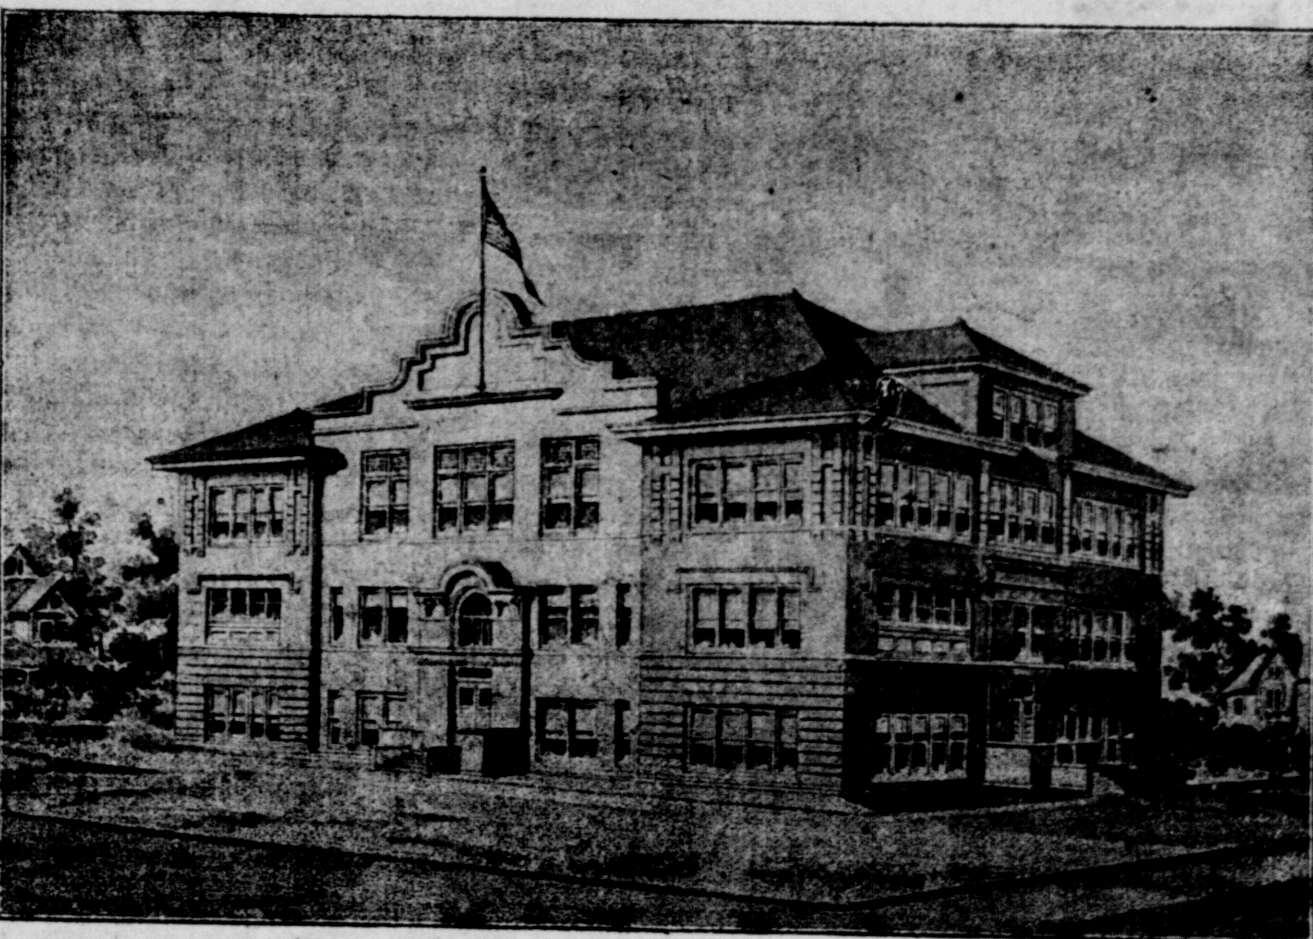

"But I am too glad to get home to handy charges further. The United States is the queen among the nations and Oklahoma is her crown filled with flashing gems. The more I see of other states the more I love my own state. Great cities we have and growing, but their greatness and growth is due to the greatness of our country. I want to see Oklahoma first in material and intellectual progress and prosperity."

One Little Scrap.

There has been one little scrap in town this afternoon, but we can't say definitely what the occasion was or what the result will be. The participants it is said were Bud Kisler, Bess and John Rich. At this time they seem to be very much in custody.

Regardless of Political Consequences Ada Will Continue to be One of the Leading School Cities of Oklahoma

CROP CONDITION

NOT SO BAD

HIT HARD BY HOT WINDS AND DROUTH IN SOME PARTS.

State Board of Agriculture Reports Conditions 64.1, as Against 64.3 a Year Ago.

Guthrie, Ok., Aug. 2.—The Oklahoma corn crop is not in as bad condition as has been indicated, according to a statement issued by the State Board of Agriculture upon the showing as of July 25. The growing condition of corn on that day was 64.1 per cent, as compared with 85.4 per cent last month and 64.3 per cent for July one year ago. Like July of 1909, the board says, the month has been hard for the crop, save in the eastern and southern counties, where there was almost twice the average rainfall and insuring in thirty-one counties the greatest yield in years. The crop has been hit hard in central and western counties by hot winds, chinch bugs and several weeks' drouthy condition, the rainfall being only local in those sections. In thirty-six counties the average rainfall was 2 to 3 inches, with the state average of 1.81 inches, about 2 inches below normal. Bad crop conditions are reported in Kingfisher, Garfield, Noble, Payne, Logan, Tillman, Jackson, Pawnee, Grant, Dewey and Alfalfa counties, the percentage of damage ranging from 60 to 77 per cent. Thirty-one counties in the eastern and southern sections report corn condition from 90 to 80 per cent, as compared with 70 to 80 per cent last year, and will raise as much corn as was gathered in the entire state last year.

The bulletin concludes: "According to the assessors' returns, 70,281,972 bushels of corn were raised in Oklahoma last year, and with an increased acreage of 11 per cent for 1910 the average condition of the crop identical with this period last year, there is no reason why a much greater yield will not be made under normal conditions, notwithstanding reports being sent out by those who seek to give the public the impression that Oklahoma's corn crop has been completely ruined."

Cotton Condition Good.

Sixty-four counties give the growing condition of cotton on July 25 as 86.1 per cent, as compared with 98.1 per cent last month. The lowest percentages are in Noble, Pawnee and Payne counties. Census returns to the United States department of agriculture give 544,954 bales of cotton ginned last year. The acreage planted this year, the board says, is an increase of 19.1 per cent over last year, and less than 1 per cent of the acreage will be or has been abandoned. The board predicts a large cotton crop.

Growing condition of broom corn, the bulletin states, has improved during the last few weeks, the condition being 82.8 per cent, there has been a good increase in acreage of Kaffir corn and cowpeas and milo maize, heretofore considered a Western crop is being raised in forty-five counties. The condition of alfalfa is 76 per cent, an increase of 10 per cent compared with 1909, but as compared with last month is a decrease of 10.1 per cent. The crop is worth nearly $5,000,000, the board says.

Hay Is Short.

Owing to dry weather, the native meadow hay crop will be much shorter this year than usual, and reports from the wheat-producing counties show that, except in dry counties, from 25 to 50 per cent more plowing has been done for wheat than at this time last year.

Staggers Skeptics.

That a clean, nice, fragrant compound like Bucklen's Arnica Salve will instantly relieve a bad burn, cut, scald, wound or piles, staggers skeptics. But great cures prove its a wonderful healer of the worst sores, ulcers, boils, felons, eczema, skin eruptions, as also chapped hands, sprains and corns. Try it. 25c at G. M. Ramsey's.

TUBERCULOSIS AND DIPHTHERIA GERMS STOLEN

U. S. Mail Robbed of 13 Vials of Disease Germs, Enough to Depopulate the State.

Topeka, Kans., Aug. 1.—Thirteen vials containing tuberculosis and diphtheria germs, addressed to Dr. Sarah Greenfield, bacteriologist of the state board of health, disappeared from the United States mails last Friday and a determined search for them resulted in finding the vials, open and empty in an alley in the west part of the city today. The package containing the vials was taken out by the postmaster, but was lost or stolen before he delivered it. The state board of health declines to tell exactly where the vials were found, fearing to rouse the neighborhood. There were enough germs in the vials to depopulate the state, but the board of health thinks there will be no serious results, as the broken vials were found where the direct rays of the sun shone on them.

CANDIDATES FRIENDS FEEL OPTIMISTIC

CLAIMS IN FAVOR OF EACH OPTIMISTIC—SLOGAN AMONG LOCAL POLITICIANS, "CLAIM THE EARTH."

No Unusual Excitement Attends the Election—Lots of Good Humored Jostling.

The reports floating around that this or that state or county candidate is leading are at much variance. Judge C. A. Galbraith and Hon. Bud Gregg both look wise, wink the other eye knowingly and refer to that Ada ward in which the Lawton man was leading at four o'clock. The friends of Hon. Lee Cruce declare that he is leading in all wards and is receiving practically the entire vote of the first. The friends of Bill Murray appear positive that such candidate for governor will carry one if not two of the four wards of the city.

There is not much resort to the hazard of guessing as to the successful candidate for any county office. The various candidates and their friends are working and none show defeat.

Local republican leaders appear to be divided in their estimates of the probable results of the vote of the several candidates for republican nomination. But the favorites appear to be Honorable Tom Ferguson and Joe McNeal.

It is thought that the local majority for the grandfather clause will exceed by a good deal the usual democratic vote over that of the combined republican and democratic votes.

The election was quiet and the general public will evidently be thankful when it is but a memory.

Phenomenal Vote Getter.

Judge Tom D. McKeown stated at 2 p. m. today that he felt much gratified at the apparently almost unanimous support of him by his fellow townsmen and democrats for the democratic nomination as one of the two district judges. He considered that naturally he would lose a few votes from among a few of his proposed local democratic constituency, on the proposition of inadvertant stamping of the ballot.

It is the News' regard that Tom McKeown is entirely justified in his estimate that practically all the democratic voters of his home town that may be cast against him will result from lack of forethought and not on account of premeditated action. Tom Will make a right nice looking district judge. Don't you think so?

BALTIMORE GIRLS

WANT COWBOYS

Did Not Want to Get Into the papers—Of Course It Didn't.

Oklahoma City, Aug. 2.—In Baltimore, Md., there are a couple of little girls who want to come to Oklahoma to be "cowboy kids."

They'd like to have a cowboy sweetheart, a real, live cowboy with a pair of high top boots, spurs and a warm heart.

Know one like that?

Tell him to write to Anna Pactow and if you know another tell him to write to Catherine Pactow.

They wrote to Sheriff Garrison and told him their troubles.

Garrison's a gallant man, and not willing to see the girls suffer, he has instructed his deputies to keep a close lookout for cowboys—cowbops who look like they would make good lovers.

Here's what the girls write:

"Dear friend, dropping you a few lines letting you know that I thought I would write and let you know that Anna and I are crazy to be a cow-girl and would like for you to get us a few cowboys to correspond with."

"We do not like Baltimore and would like to come out in Oklahoma on the ranch if you write and let us know how much it cost to come we will save our money and come out as soon as we have enough money."

"Our ages are both 17 if you receive this do not put this in the news paper about us. Please answer as soon as possible."

That unique document is signed "Anna Pactow, Catherine Pactow, cousins, 154 Potomac street, Balto., Md." It had already been placed among the sheriff's curios and has a notch near the top of a well assorted pile.

REGULAR REVIVAL CROWD HEAR THE CANDIDATES

LARGE AUDIENCE AT TENT AND PONTOTOC CANDIDATES FLOOD-ED ORATORY UNTIL PAST MID-NIGHT.

Some Discussions Between Candidates

Somewhat Spirited, But the Crowd Remained Good Humored and Enjoyed the Fun.

In personnel and numbers, it was a protracted meeting crowd that assembled at the big tent last night in response to the invitation of several candidates that they would speak and would appreciate a liberal attendance.

Those who called the meeting, regardless of the apparent preferences of the large audience and agreeable to their own evident inclinations invited all candidates present to participate in the speech making.

Those who spoke in behalf of their candidacies were Judge T. D. McKeown, candidate for district judge; Hon. W. H. Nettles, Hon. Jno. P. Crawford, Hon. Jake Arnold, candidates for the house of state representatives; Honorable Robt. Wimbish and Robt. Roland, "The Two Bobs," candidates for county attorney. Hon. J. W. Davis and Hon. Reuben Roddie, candidates for the state senate; Judges E. S. Ratliff, C. O. Barton, A. M. Croxton, Jas. E. Grigsby and Sid Tolbert, all candidates for county judge.

It was past mid-night when the candidates had concluded. While there was no occurrence approaching sensation in connection with the several competitive discussions, there was sufficient warmth to maintain the attention of the audience until the late hour when the meeting concluded.

While there was evinced some interest in the prospect of the discussion by the several candidates for sheriff in behalf of their candidacies, the only candidate responding was Colonel George Thompson, who addressed the crowd with much spirit. The failure of response by the several other candidates for sheriff was attributable to their absence, it being reported that they were not informed and the information was not general that all candidates should be afforded an opportunity to present their claims.

TIPS On Choosing a Bank

Before lining up with a bank you should investigate several points in connection with it. In the first place ascertain whether or not the bank is prospering and developing along with the other lines of business of the community. If a bank's business isn't prospering something is wrong. In the second place are the officers and directors of the bank good, safe business men, who deal squarely with the people? Watch out for a bank operated by tricksters or sharpers. In the third place do the directors really direct or are they merely figure heads? Look out for a bank whose directors know little or nothing about its business.

We want you to investigate this institution. We know its business is prospering and increasing right along. You know its officers and directors and we believe they are safe, honorable, business men. The directors of this bank say what shall and shall not be done. They pass upon the loans regularly and their instructions are carried out to the letter. This bank is what they make it—A Strong, Prospering, Conservative institution.

CARLTON WEAVER
Who Advocated Claims of Mr. Murray in Pontotoc County.

From Lucile's Diary

Mother's small and perfectly unnecessary household economies annoy me dreadfully at times.

I said to her one day recently that I wished she would have our nickel telephone taken out and replaced by the unlimited service.

"As you nearly always use my nickels," laughed mother, "I don't see why you should care which kind of telephone we have. Seriously, dear, I think that if even a little money can be saved by using the nickel phone we ought to do it cheerfully."

I knew it was useless to argue the matter with mother any further at that time, but I did not give up the idea of securing the unlimited service.

I rarely abandon any plan on which my mind is set, for I think persistence is one of the important elements of strength of character.

That evening just after dinner Betty called me up and asked me to come over and play cards.

"I hope you haven't any engagement," she said, "for Bob has brought a friend home to dinner tonight and we would like to have a little bridge."

When I got to Betty's I was sorry I had taken the trouble to change my dress. Her invitation was very misleading. I had naturally supposed that when Betty said Bob had brought a friend home she meant a man friend, and I was greatly surprised to be introduced to a plainly gowned and quite uninteresting looking woman.

"Miss Clyde went to school with Bob years ago and now she teaches in a western college," whispered Betty while I was removing my wraps. "She is very bright and charming."

"Really?" I murmured.

As we joined Bob and his old friend in the drawing room I noticed the telephone in the hall.

"Oh, I see you have the unlimited service now!" I exclaimed. "I'm trying to persuade mother to have it put in at our house."

"What's the use?" asked Uncle Bob, good-naturedly. "Whenever you feel an excess of telephonic enthusiasm coming on, drop in here and help yourself to our phone."

"That's awfully sweet of you, Uncle Bob," I replied. "I believe I'll avail myself of your generosity now while Betty is getting out her cards and the bridge table."

I slipped into the hall and rung up Mr. Owen, who has been ill for a few days. He appeared to enjoy a chat and we visited for quite a while. Then I remembered that I had promised to pass the evening at Louise Erwin's house, so I phoned her my apologies for not going. There were several others to whom I wished to speak and I was in the midst of a conversation with Arthur Knight when Betty called me.

"Just a moment, dear," I answered, considerably ignoring her petulant tone.

"Now, you are surely through," Betty said, coming into the hall a few minutes later. "Bob's fuming for our bridge."

"Poor Uncle Bob!" I laughed. "He'll have to be patient a little longer, for I'm waiting for a long-distance call." Betty left me without another word, and in a minute more I was listening to the voice of Winsor Lee, whom I had been lucky enough to catch at the hotel in Cleveland where he is just now. I told him about the new tennis club that some of our crowd are organizing and I asked his advice about the kind of racket I should buy. Winsor is such a devoted tennis player that he forgets all about time when he is discussing his favorite game. As he was so thoughtful about the racket, begging the privilege of choosing the one for me, I had not the heart to break off the conversation.

It was rudely interrupted by Uncle Bob, who asked me with uncalculated sharpness if I was "going to talk to that chap all night."

"Of course not," I said. "What time is it?"

"It's exactly 10:45 o'clock."

"Mercy! I must go home at once!" I exclaimed.

"Why, we haven't had any bridge," protested Betty, "and I was going to make a Welsh rabbit, Lucile."

"Well, I'll stay for a wee bite of the rabbit," I conceded. "Then I must fly. You know how mother dislikes having me remain out late."

Uncle Bob was extremely taciturn all the way home. In fact, so short and gruff were his remarks that I was sorry I had bothered to go to his house. I have not seen him since that evening, but yesterday he told mother that a large bill had come in for long-distance telephoning which he thought I would want to pay out of my allowance. When mother spoke to me about it I said that I was simply astonished at Uncle Bob.

"Why, he invited me to use his phone any time," I told her.

"But he didn't expect you to talk to Cleveland for over an hour," said mother. "I do wish, Lucile, that you had not abused his generosity. It makes me very uncomfortable when you displease your Uncle Bob."

"Well, mother," I remarked, "if you would allow me to have the unlimited service put in a little unpleasantness like this would never happen."

Mother just sighed in that marty-like way of hers.

The men have come today to change our phone. It will be a great comfort to have the unlimited service.

A woman is extolled for her virtues and adored for her weaknesses.

NEITHER RESIST EXTRADITION

Prisoners Are Treated Kindly by Police-men and Give no Trouble.

New York, Aug. 2.—On Aug. 18 Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen and Ethel Clare Leneve will be taken aboard a trans-Atlantic liner bound for England, there to stand trial jointly, accused of murdering a woman believed to have been Belle Elmore, the doctor's actress-American wife. The criminal law of the British possessions established this today when the haggard dentist, whose flight ended so dramatically aboard the steamship Montrose yesterday morning, was arraigned before a magistrate and remanded until Aug. 18.

"Neither he or the girl will resist extradition. Although too ill to appear in court, the questions prescribed by law were put to Miss Leneve as she sat weakly in a chair at the home of Chief of Police McCarthy. As Crippen had said at his arraignment earlier in the day, she too evinced willingness to go back to England for trial. She answered the questions in an almost inaudible voice and seemed on the verge of collapsing. As was her male companion, she was remanded until August 8.

Until late in the day the judge and the police believe that the girl's examination would have to be postponed but finally they decided to question her at Chief McCarthy's house, so that both prisoners might be ready to return to England on the same boat at the earliest date permitted by law.

ADA STATE OFFICERS RETURN TO CAPITAL

JUDGE FURMAN, "SWAMP" CAMPBELL AND HOWARD PARKER
COME HOME TO VOTE.

Judge Furman Has No Opposition in State—"Swamp" Won't When the Ballots Are Counted, and no One Could Beat Howard if His Office Were Elective.

The three residents of Ada, who are state officers, Judge Furman, Justice of the Criminal Court of Appeals, "Swamp" Campbell, supreme court clerk and Howard Parker, state supreme court reporter returned to the state capital this afternoon. Judge Furman and Hon. Swamp are candidates for re-election and of course will land. Mr. Parker's state office, which is very important, is appointive by the supreme court and the criminal court of appeals, and it is the estimate in state circles that Mr. Parker's popularity and distinct fitness for the state reportership would ever preclude his retirement, except by voluntary resignation.

The Best Hour of Life

It is when you do some great deed or discover some wonderful fact. This hour came to J. R. Pitt, of Rocky Mt., N. C. when he was suffering intensely, as he says, "from the worst cold I ever had, I then proved to my great satisfaction, what a wonderful Cold and Cough cure Dr. King's New Discovery is. For, after taking one bottle, I was entirely cured. You can't say anything too good of a medicine like that." ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. With our dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
